7) The Charges proposed are un-objectionable except as regards rule 7 whose rule is to the effect that it is open to the Govt to disclaim any claim within 3 months from the date of claim. As expressed would appear to the public as very arbitrary and will come in for a lot of criticism. If the Govt has any claim against any claim should be very clearly indicated — viz — When claim has been admitted after investigation — within 3 months after the work is published, in the public interest or when the contractor has failed to carry out the work in accordance with the specifications or when the contractor has failed to carry out the work in accordance with the specifications or when the contractor has failed to carry out the work in accordance with the specifications
